Forced Into Exile

Wm. Upchurch of Glenn Oak, Okla., was an exile from home. Mountain air he thought, would cure a frightful lung-racking cough that had defied all remedies for two years. After six months he returned, death dogging his steps. "Then I began to use Dr. King's New Discovery," he writes, "and after taking six bottles I am as well as ever." It saves thousands yearly from desperate lung diseases. Infalible for coughs and colds, it dispels hoarseness and sore throat. Cures grip, bronchitis, hemorrhages, asthma, croup, whooping cough. 50c and $1.00, trial bottle free, guaranteed by all druggists.

Even the close-mouthed man has an open countenance at meal time.

BAD BREATH

"For months I had great trouble with my stomach and used all kinds of medicines. My tongue has been actually as green as grass, my breath having a bad odor. Two weeks ago a friend recommended Cascarets and after using them I can willingly and cheerfully say that they have entirely cured me. I therefore let you know that I shall recommend them to any one suffering from such troubles." Chas. H. Halpern, 114 E. 34th St., New York, N. Y.

AT THE THEATER

An Ordinary Show.

"Texas," which was last night's offering at the Duncan Opera house, was a fair attraction. It drew a small audience, which was probably due to the fact that Las Vegas theatergoers are anticipating two banner attractions for next week, "Fifty Miles from Boston," which will be here on Monday night, and "The Girl Question," which comes on next Wednesday. The two latter shows are both musical comedies of the extravaganza type which are always popular with local playgoers.

The company which played "Texas" last night was not half bad. Emily Clifton as "Texas West," daughter of Col. Buck West, owner of the Buckhead ranch, while only a mere slip of a girl, was both pretty and clever. Harlan Fox made a handsome hero in the role of Jack Dallam, or "Fresh-water Jack."

Like all shows which take their scene and plot from western life, there was the usual display of "shooting irons," with a tragedy in every other act. Every man in the show was a walking arsenal and in some instances the size of the guns they wore would make the ordinary cowboy turn green with envy. Artillery would perhaps mildly describe their caliber.

But then, the audience, what there was of it, seemed to enjoy the show, so that should suffice. As for the management, it did well to make enough out of the receipts to pay the light and coal bills, let alone the orchestra and stage hands.

A Musical Whirlwind.

George M. Cohan was thirty years of age the Fourth of July last, and he is and lyrics, and devising the stage business, George M. Cohan also superintends every detail of the production from the time it goes into its first rehearsal until it is completed and presented before an audience.

Seats for this attraction went on sale today at the Murphy and Schaefer drug stores and there was a rush to secure tickets.

"The Girl Question."

George Marion, the famous stage director who produced "The College Widow," "The Prince of Pilsen," "The Merry Widow" and "The County Chairman," has directed the rehearsals of "The Girl Question," the musical comedy by Frank R. Adams and Will M. Hough with music by Joseph E. Howard, which will be seen at the Duncan Opera house next Wednesday night, under the direction of H. H. Frazee.

There is a distinction, a class, and an atmosphere of elegance about Mr. Marion's work which stamps it indelibly as that of a master and any theatre-goer who has once witnessed a production of his is always on the lookout for an opportunity to see another.

There are many novel features in the musical production of "The Girl Question," which played 379 consecutive performances in Chicago. One of the most novel of these is the Eddie Foy imitation ballet which consists of sixteen little girls made up in the characteristic fashion which Mr. Foy has made famous, and who sing, dance and grimace exactly as he does.

A startling electric novelty which will be seen in the third act is the phantom chimes. They are introduced first in the chorus of the song, "I Hate to Work on Monday," sung by twenty-four pretty girls seated at typewriters and clicking off an accompaniment to the words of the song. The chimes by means of electrical attachments are made to ring all over the house under the seats, up in the gallery, on the walls, etc., making the most novel effect which has ever been presented.

This attraction promises to be by far the best of the season's shows at the Duncan.

Incorporation papers were filed yesterday in the office of Territorial Secretary Nathan Jaffa at Santa Fe by the New Mexico Reduction company of Carrizozo, Lincoln county. The ticularly satisfactory evening's entertainment, in view of the fact that the plot of the play tells a coherent story through which two love affairs are successfully engineered, and throughout the entire piece there is introduced innumerable chorus and song numbers, all from the pen of Mr. George M. Cohan, who is beyond question the most popular author, actor, composer and playwright America has ever known.

A remarkable young man is George M. Cohan. When they devise a musical play in England it usually requires the services of four authors—one for the music, one for the chatter, one for the lyrics and one for the book; but a Cohan play never has but one name attached, and besides composing the music, writing the book and directors and incorporators are: J. Luther Peacock of Chicago, 99,998 shares; Frank J. Thuerer of Carrizozo, 1 share, and Alfonso Davis of Chicago, 1 share. The capitalization is $100,000, divided into 100,000 shares.

Governor Curry yesterday granted another reprieve, this time for sixty days, to Santos Ortiz, who was to have been hanged at Silver City on Sunday when his first reprieve of thirty days would have been expired. The reprieve is granted to give Ortiz time to perfect an appeal to the supreme court. Another man convicted of murder at the same term of court and sentenced to be hanged, because of better financial circumstances, had his sentence stayed by appeal and Governor Curry thought it no more than fair to give Ortiz the same opportunity to have his case reviewed by the territorial supreme court.

About noon yesterday Charles Closson, sheriff of Santa Fe county, had a rather harrowing and almost serious experience. He started out early yesterday morning for the Arroyo Hondo, driving a fine black horse which he recently purchased. When he got ready to return to town, the horse in some manner became frightened and ran away. Closson was thrown bodily from the buggy receiving a bad bruise on the head, though otherwise uninjured. The horse kept running and soon the buggy was dashed against the rocks of a small creek and smashed to pieces.

Kills her foe of 20 Years

"The most merciless enemy I had for 20 years," declares Mrs. James Duncan, of Haynesville, Mo., "was dyspepsia. I suffered intensely after eating or drinking and could scarcely sleep. After many remedies had failed and several doctors gave me up, I tried Electric Bitters, which cured me completely. Now I can eat anything. I am 70 years old and am overjoyed to get my health and strength back again." For indigestion, loss of appetite, kidney trouble, lame back, female complaints, it is unequalled. Only 50c at all druggists.

Superintendent of Public Instruction J. E. Clark is preparing a circular in answer to many inquiries, explaining that the territorial levy of three mills for public schools is apportioned only among such school districts which themselves have made a levy of at least three mills. The $27,600 apportioned last week by the superintendent was not from the three-mill levy, but was derived from the leasing of the public school lands.

Good Cough Medicine for Children and Grown Folks, Too.

"We could hardly do without Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," says Mrs. Flora Despain of Floyd, Ky. "I found it to be so good for the croup and have used it for years. I can heartily recommend it for coughs, colds and croup in children and grown folks, too." The above shows the implicit confidence that many mothers place in Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, a confidence based on many years' experience in the use of it. No one need hesitate to use this remedy for it contains no chloroform, opium or other narcotics and may be given to a child as confidently as to an adult. For sale by all dealers.

A man must have a certain amount of wisdom in order to realize what a fool he is.

What Would You Do?

In case of a burn or scald what would you do to relieve the pain? Such injuries are liable to occur in any family and everyone should be prepared for them. Chamberlain's Salve applied on a soft cloth will relieve the pain almost instantly, and unless the injury is a very severe one, will cause the parts to heal without leaving a scar. For sale by all dealers.

The Plaza hotel, a landmark at Tucumcari, burned to the ground Tuesday night. The hotel had twenty-seven rooms and was the property of Jefferson Collins. Several guests barely escaped with their lives and none of the furniture or furnishings were saved. The loss is $8,000, and is partly covered by insurance.

Mrs. Crabshaw—"Only in one way; she wanted $5 a month more."—Lippincott's.

A seedy-looking man entered a store in Trenton the other day, and asked for assistance, backing up his request with a long tale of sickness and lack of employment.

With a wink at his clerk, the merchant pointed to a friend who happened to be in the place and replied: "Ask that gentleman; he is the proprietor. I am only a clerk."

The friend received the beggar's request in a sympathetic manner, and, turning to the merchant, remarked: "This seems to be a worthy case, Mr. Jones. Give him a dollar from the cash register," and walked out of the store.

It was in vain that the merchant protested that it had been a joke. So insistent did the seedy one become that "de boss" directions should be carried out, that it was finally necessary to do so in order to be rid of him.—Lippincott's.
